LOS ANGELES

Host to the 2028 Olympic Games, The Riviera Country Club has welcomed the world's greatest golfers and most prestigious golf tournaments, including the 1948 U.S. Open and the 1983 and 1995 PGA Championships. In addition to its major championship history, Riviera has long been considered the club that Hollywood calls home. During the golden age, its membership included silver screen legends Charley Chaplin, Mary Pickford, Walt Disney, Howard Hughes, Humphrey Bogart and many more. When Ben Hogan won his first U.S. Open at The Riviera Country Club in 1948, he remarked, "Some of my most pleasant memories and thoughts are of this wonderful club and magnificent golf course."

The divine valley of Riviera offers intricately sloped fairways and delicately carved bunkers amongst lanes of sycamore and eucalyptus trees.

For accommodation, why not hobnob with the occasional celebrity at the Santa Monica's Shutters on the Beach? Breezy, beach-chic rooms and suites, two highly regarded restaurants and a convivial cocktail lounge are all just steps from the Pacific Ocean's pristine sand.

AMMAN

In a country where golf is barely off the ground, Bisharat Golf's nine-home course has a rich character and local history that makes it well worth a visit. Don't expect a regular day at the links with rubber mats to tee off, black/brown greens and more than 50 livestock employed to keep the driving range in check. The 'browns' are created from compact oiled sands that are broomed by your caddy and play lightning quick

Located between the prestigious Al Sweifiyah residential area and the Shmeisani financial district is the luxurious five-star Four Seasons Hotel Amman. The crown jewel in the heart of Jordan's bustling capital city is set atop the highest of Amman's seven hills with large rooms and suites, modern amenities and great service.
