
NovaJet

Simply sit back and enjoy a perfect flight

Founded by a team of experience aviation professionals, NovaJet Charter was created in response to a market request for an innovated solution based approach to Executive Air Charter, Aircraft Management, and Aircraft Acquisition Services.

In today's competitive business environment companies are putting more emphasis on corporate security, safety, cost control, and time management.

Responsible and accountable companies are turning to executive charter to incorporate their specific travel needs with our recommended charter options. As a result, these business leaders are using NovaJet not just as a means of travel, but as an effective business tool that helps them create a competitive edge by arriving to both major and rural destinations on time, on budget, and before the competition.

Our definition of a great flight? Uneventful.....Whether you charter one of our executive jets, or executive style turbo props, you will step into a world of unparalleled service and personalized attention to detail. With our concierge service, no request is too great or too small.

24 hours a day, 7 days a week we offer full service executive charter including ground transportation, in-flight meals, dinner reservations, hotel reservations, and much more.

It's what distinguishes us as your preferred choice. And it means you can simply sit back and enjoy a perfect flight.
